

Jutta Motz ...

... art historian PhD and archaeologist MA, worked for many years in several publishing houses in Zurich, Switzerland, where she lives since 1978. In the ninties she published a series of newly translated English crime novels with own imprint. In 1995 she started to write crime novels with female heroines. Today she is working in a small family business. Her main interest lies in solving so called white collar crimes.

Organisation:

2011: AIEP - meeting: Annual Conference in Zürich

Memberships:

PEN, Switzerland

Member of the "Syndicat", German branch of AIEP

Swiss delegate of AIEP

Member of "Authors in Switzerland" AdS,

Mörderische Schwestern, Germany, Austria, Switzerland